

New Industrial Relations Advisory Service for the ACT Community Sector

Launch and Workshop

Wednesday 23 November 2011 (please note date change)

ACTCOSS and Jobs Australia have been successful in obtaining seed funding from the ACT Government to provide a dedicated industrial relations service for the ACT community sector.

You are invited to the launch of the service, to be held at 9.30am on Wednesday 23 November.

The launch will be followed by a workshop on current topical IR issues which will include:

- emerging issues from the modern award;
- update on the equal pay case; and
- adverse actions claims – how to minimise your risk.

Thanks to the support of the ACT Community Services Directorate, community sector employers in the ACT now have access to:

- a regular series of workshops on current industrial relations issues and approaches to human resource management tailored to the needs and culture of the community sector;
- a 50% discount for a subscription to the full community sector industrial relations service of Jobs Australia providing:
 - day to day advice on any IR or HRM enquiry, as well as
 - representation in complex matters such as disputes and bargaining; and
 - handy online and printed resources including guides to drafting contracts, managing performance and disciplinary processes, and restructuring and redundancy.
- an enhanced program of sector development delivered by ACTCOSS in partnership with Jobs Australia.

When: Wednesday 23 November 2011 (please note date change), launch: 9.30am, workshop: 10am to 12.30pm.

Where: Weston Community Hub, 6 Gritten St, Weston ACT 2611.

Cost: Free.

Light refreshments will be provided.

To register for the workshop please complete the form on the following page and return it to lisa@actcoss.org.au or fax to 02 6281 4192. For further details please contact Lisa on 02 6202 7200.
